JUDGMENT

Koshy,J.

This petition is filed for habeas corpus. The alleged detenue Gayathri, daughter of the petitioner, was present. As requested by the petitioner, he and his wife were allowed to talk with the girl. Thereafter again she appeared before the court and submitted that she wants to go with Ajith. It is also submitted that she married the third respondent Ajith and she is not under illegal custody. It is further submitted that they appeared before the Magistrate's Court also. In the above circumstances, this habeas corpus petition is dismissed. Police is directed to see that they are reached in their home without any obstruction. Petitioner shall not disturb their peaceful living.
